A Camp...

...to God's Glory!

This Year's Youth Camp is History

The dates were as follows:

Junior Camp Week - June 21 – 25 25 Campers attended, 5 youngsters were gloriously saved !!! Please pray for them!!!

Junior High / Senior High Camp Week – June 28th - July 3rd 40 campers attended.

Evangelist Monte Leavell preached at both Camps. Campers filled out workbooks, built relationships with fellow campers and with the Lord. They practiced their devotions in their personal quiet times. There was good food, fun and fellowship for all.

Thanks to all the leaders, counselors, and workers that made it all possible.

Stories and pictures will be posted on the web when they are made available.

Campers: please send a short testimony to:
horstadler@cox.net for posting on the website throughout the year.

Work Day, June 12, 2010

The fifth work day took place on June 12th, 2010. Five men participated. Phil Wright and Rick Cornish represented Victory Baptist Church. John Hawkins, Marvin Madsen, and Keith Eads represented Calvary Baptist Church in Mesa. The following tasks were accomplished. Old shower stall outside generator building was removed; old 260 gallon water tank tower outside generator building was torn down; water tank & sink was brought to CBC - Marv will make a water trailer for the camp; some plumbing was done in wash rooms; fire pit bench boards were sanded & varnished; all drives were graded to remove weeds (Phil's tractor came in really handy); area around multi-purpose building was graded to remove weeds; rocks were removed from RV area; a new, larger fire pit was built; RV area was graded to remove weeds; wheels installed on grill to make it easier to move around.

Thanks to all for working, praying, and giving. Thank to Phil Wright for leading the project.

Please pray about how the Lord would have you be involved in His work at Camp Tishomingo. Also, please visit the camp website at the link below.
