Teen Campers - 2011

Last month it was reported that the generator developed a malfunction and had become inoperable. This month we have good news: The generator had been taken to a Phoenix repair facility where it was repaired. It still must be taken back to camp. The bad news is that the repair cost $2,300 – Ouch!

Fund Drive: Praise the Lord! The thermometer at the end of October is $18,962**
